

Orbital Mechanics Relations

The orbital period follows Kepler's third law. For a circular orbit the equilibrium temperature is approximated by:

$$P^2 = (4 \pi^2 a^3) / (G (M_{\text{star}} + M_p))$$

where P is the period, a the semi-major axis, and M_{star} the host mass.